

The One Command Executive Success Coaching Agreement

Congratulations on choosing to realize your greatest success through The One Command Executive Success Coaching with your coach, (YOUR NAME). We are about to embark on a wonderful journey together – one that get's you the success results you are seeking.

I'd like to mentioned that there are five principle areas we will focus on in your sessions:

1. Clarify Your Direction
2. Optimize Your Environment
3. Upgrade Your Skill Set
4. Master Your Mind Set
5. Activate Your Success DNA that naturally and easily leads to inspired action

Our approach is radically different than traditional coaching in that not only do we look to achieve the results you are after, we assure your success by the simple and easy One Command technique. In your sessions, in addition to clear and concise attention to action steps and achieved goals, you dissolve old ideas and beliefs held below your awareness that have unconsciously prevented your success – no matter how much effort you have put into your business or self actualization until now.

Another unique One Command approach is first, you usually all ready have too many tasks at hand so we don't require you to write out goals or spend your valuable time organizing according to a pat system – instead we organically develop the right actions in the right timing. There is nothing for you to do to prepare for your first session except show up – we do the rest.

Our coaching agreement is for (you decide – 3 months is what I use) 3 months and most of our clients continue through a one-year process with us as the results they are getting keeps increasing. At the end of 3 months you can review your options.
